

ALMS Course List

This list shows, in alphanumeric order, courses that are hosted by the Army Learning Management System. Courses on this list may be currently available for registration, or unavailable. The proponent may have ended availability while allowing current registrants to complete the course, or may not yet have established an iteration (class) for the course. The proponent is the authorized source for information on course status. To access these courses, log-in to AKO and select My Education.
